Unity award gives a helping hand to West Carrollton Pirate Packs

WEST CARROLLTON, Ohio – Friendly rivals West Carrollton and Miamisburg High Schools completed their ninth annual Unity in the Community Campaign as heroes to patients in need of blood and to a charity that helps classmates who might go hungry.

The schools presented the $1,000 Unity Award sponsored by Universal 1 Credit Union to “Pirate Packs” at halftime of the Jan. 7 WCHS vs. MHS men’s basketball game. Jon Lewallen accepted the award on behalf of Pirate Packs.

As we enter tax refund season, fraudsters are prepared and ready to go.

Be aware of tax scams this year by knowing what to lookout for. The IRS has reported the perpetrators use multiple message variations in an attempt to fool taxpayers. Fraudsters will use regular mail, telephone, and email phishing attempts to steal taxpayer refunds or tax-related information. The emails can appear to be from a trusted source, but the email addresses are spoofed or compromised containing stolen logos. Also, the risk alert reminded that phishing emails typically contain links to malicious websites or attachments with embedded malware or viruses.
